PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Audoux Minet Pendant Lamp Made from Rope and Brass, France, 1950
12.6" x 13.77" (height shade only) x- 53" overall height as pictured

Audoux Minet Pendant Lamp made from rope and brass. Great scale light with newly rewired electrics. The original shade is made of woven hemp rope and in very good condition.

The last photo shows the effect of the rope shade in almost complete darkness. The naturalistic approach to design and style is typical for the French design of Audoux-Minet (active around 1940-1950 in Marseille).

The lamp is in very good vintage condition with only some minor surface wear here and there commensurate with age.

We have rewired it, replaced the hardware and gave it a new textile covered cable.

Dimensions: 12.6" x 13.77" (height shade only) x- 53" overall height as pictured Adrien Audoux and Frida Minet are a French designer couple. They mainly designed pieces during the 1940s and 1950s and their general ethos was to create furniture made out of accessible materials.
