PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Bamboo. Black Formica desk, Italy, circa 1985.

A Postmodern small table perfect and stylish for any daily accomplishments.

Comprised of Formica on wood with bamboo decor this desk certainly was greatly inspired by radical design approached from the late 1960s (Superstudio, Archizoom etc.)

Minimalistic heavy standardized black slabs form the structure, outlined by precisely placed bamboo decor on the side that is supposed to being used.

Cleverly composed classical furniture icon. Good condition; at the backside there are some losses to the Formica and a small chip at the front rim.

This piece can either be used as a console table or desk or freestanding piece.

Dimensions are: 44.9" x 29.92 x 20.86".
