PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Fontana Arte

Elegant suspension lamp with a large honeycomb glass shade that was often used by Max Ingrand for his designs, Italy, circa 1975.

The dominant feature of this light is the beautiful 23" lamp shade consisting of a single large honeycomb clear glass piece.

It casts a beautiful light up and down. The fixture is in original condition with no damages, chips to the glass, fully working and cleaned gently.

We replaced the original canopy with a small brass cone similar to the one on top of the glass shade.

It takes one large e26/27 bulb with 100w max, Led's are possible, and it's dimmable.

Dimensions are 22.83" (D) x 11.02" (H1) x 47" (H overall)

The height is determined by the cables only and can be adjusted easily.
