PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Ludovico Diaz de Santillana. Large Murano glass sphere light, Italy, circa 1970.

Stunning 20" Venini glass pendant fixture consisting of a beautiful blown glass shade in a pale crème yellow and organic anemone style decor, which also shows quite delicately when the light illuminates.

A quality lamp from thick glass with black painted metal hardware. It can easily be extended with a steel cable and some more cord wire, which we can do in our workshop free of charge.

It's in very good condition with no chips to the glass shade and minimal wear to the hardware.

It's using one large e27 (EU) or e26 (US) bulb, 100W.
