PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Walnut wood beautiful preserved French mosaic walnut coffee Table, circa 1960.

Dimensions are: 39" x 18.8". This cocktail table is resembling greatly similar tables from the same time period designed by Berthold Müller-Oerlinghausen or Roger Capron.

It combines materials such as walnut wood and white slate stone to create a visually stunning and functional object.

The table is characterized by its use of mosaic techniques, incorporating round, radial geometrics, creating a unique and eye-catching piece.

The walnut wood provides a warm and natural contrast to the cool stone of the mosaic, while also adding durability and stability to the design.

This style of table, inspired by the French ceramist and designer Roger Capron, is prized for its combination of functionality and aesthetic appeal and is considered a valuable addition to any home.

Despite the passing of time, its condition is remarkable. The warm patina of the wood gives it a lovely, soft glow and hints at the memories and stories it holds.

The sturdy construction and attention to detail ensure that it will be a beloved and functional piece in your home for many years to come.

Embrace its charming imperfections and allow it to add a touch of coziness and character to your space.

Dimensions are: 39" x 18.8".
